Step 11

We sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God, as we understood him, praying only for knowledge of His will for us and the power to carry that out.

Bottle Spears

She said, give me the keys. You said, "I'm fine." She gave you the keys. Ten minutes later, you drove into a tree. The twelve-pack of longnecks in the back seat flew forward and speared her in the head.

Now you're down for Manslaughter. 20 years.

Last Job

Human resources said, one more DUI and you're fired. But you drank again and drove onto somebody's lawn. The cops put you in detox and released you next morning. You walked to the parking garage, went to the top floor, and jumped off.

You left behind your 11-year-old son.

Red River

Your liver couldn't process the poison any more. Everything backed up. You started vomiting blood, then you turned yellow and died. The doctor told you this would happen six months ago.

You drank anyway.

Cold Comfort

You passed out behind the Burger King. It was the coldest night of the year. Next morning they found your frozen body.

Your sister had a room at her house but you went drinking instead.

One Last Smoke

Just another Saturday night. Drinking and smoking and watching TV. You passed out. The cigarette fell out of your fingers. A fire started. The smoke killed you.

It also killed your 4-year-old stepdaughter.

Gone Fishing

You and your friends were out at the lake to party. It got dark so you headed back. You were at full speed when you hit the pier. Everybody in the boat was decapitated.

All four, married with children.

Pickled

You went to Vegas for a good time. You drank all night and went back to your room. Had more vodka there and hit it hard. You passed out. Your breathing slowed, so did your heart rate. You went into a coma and died right there on the bed.

The maid found your body.

Family Outing

Being drunk makes it hard to use your phone, especially when you're driving. You didn't notice when you veered over the yellow line. The minivan in the other lane never had a chance.

When you woke up in the hospital, they told you it was a family of four. You killed them all.

Ward 8

Ward 8 is where they take people who are acting crazy. You've been there before. You're in there now because you ran stark naked down the middle of the street. And this time, they're not going to let you out. Ever.

Your sister signed the papers.
